

MICHAEL BROUGHTON

COO, Broughton Media Group LLC
Co-Founder Black Gay Weddings

Host | Community Connector | Wedding & Relationship Advocate

Michael Broughton is a passionate advocate for Black LGBTQIA+ love and a natural connector within the wedding industry. As co-founder of Black Gay Weddings (BGW), he plays a key role in engaging the community, building relationships, and amplifying the voices of LGBTQIA+ couples and vendors.

While Lawrence leads all BGW interviews, Michael's strength lies in live hosting and interactive discussions. Every Sunday, he and Lawrence co-host After-Stream Live Sessions, where they bring together couples, vendors, and followers for in-depth conversations, Q&A segments, and behind-the-scenes insights. His warm and engaging presence ensures that these live moments feel inclusive, fun, and meaningful.

Michael is deeply invested in empowering couples and vendors by providing visibility and resources that help them thrive. His work in community-building and relationship advocacy helps to strengthen BGW's mission of representation and inclusion. Whether co-hosting live discussions, strategizing new initiatives, or supporting the platform's growth, he remains committed to making Black LGBTQIA+ love a powerful and undeniable presence in the wedding industry.

